Dominion Riverrock announced music lineup for annual outdoor sports and river life festival

GALACTIC, The Travelin' McCourys featuring Keller Williams to headline

RICHMOND, VA – Sports Backers and Venture Richmond announced today the featured music acts for this year's Dominion Riverrock festival. On Friday, May 18th The Travelin' McCourys featuring Keller Williams will perform. And on Saturday, May 19th, Galactic will perform as the headlining act. The fourth annual sports and river life festival will be held on Brown's Island in Richmond, VA May 18-20, 2012. All concerts are free and open to the public.

Acoustic soloist Keller Williams is taking the stage with Travelin' McCourys on Friday night at 9:00 p.m. immediately following performances by local Richmond opening acts. Brought together by equal parts mutual admiration and the desire to change the musical landscape while staying true to their roots, The Travelin' McCourys and Keller Williams are a perfect --- albeit unexpected --- fit. It's a perfect marriage of instrumental virtuosos, memorable songwriting, infectious musical camaraderie, and undeniable energy.

On Saturday night, New Orleans-based GALACTIC is set to wrap-up Dominion Riverrock with a performance at 9 p.m. The stable quintet plays together with high musicianship, emulating the funky sounds of the streets of New Orleans.

"We're excited to be performing at Dominion Riverrock. We love playing in Richmond, so we're looking forward to bringing the new sounds of Mardi Gras to your city," said Robert Mercurio, GALACTIC's bassist.
